Historical Note

The Archdiocese of Milwaukee Sesquicentennial celebration events occurred from 1993-1994. Planning for the celebration began in 1989 with the formation of the Sesquicentennial Steering Committee. The sesquicentennial preparation brought the establishment an archdiocesan archives program and a written archdiocesan history, In the Richness of the Earth: A History of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee 1843-1958, by Fr. Steven A. Avella. The history of the diocese was featured in a video and on displays at the Milwaukee Public Museum and the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist. Committees were set up to prepare for Mass on April 24, 1994, held at the MECCA, as well as other special events held from 1993-1994. Parishes were involved with the celebration by researching their own parish histories, pastoral visitations, and contributing items to a time capsule.
