Scope and Content a brief description of the types of materials in the collection.

This collection of a long-time St. Francis Seminary faculty member (appointed 1867) and rector (1887-1920) contains the following series: church announcements, correspondence, diaries, mass intentions, notebooks, and teaching materials. Box 5 contains personal and miscellaneous items.

The correspondence files (1864-1926) contain letters written in German and English. Letters from former students are found in these files.

Rainer's diaries (1863-1926) are mainly written in shorthand; German transcriptions are found with the collection.

The notebooks contain information on the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary and on the St. Francis League for the Support of Poor Students. Another notebook contains an account of the death of student Patrick H. McDonough. Several other notebooks are mainly in shorthand.

The teaching files contain an 1881 teachers calendar; found within the calendar is an article written by Rainer. This series also consists of class books which list students and grades.

Box 5 contains personal documents, such as Rainer's Certificate of Naturalization, documents regarding his appointment as Domestic Prelate, his Marquette University degree, and other documents. Memberships, programs, a scrapbook, and several miscellaneous items are also found in this series.
